- Indspire

Indspire is a national charity and the largest supporter of Indigenous education outside of the federal government of Canada. To apply you go to <https://indspire.ca/programs/building-brighter-futures/>. Once there download the Building Brighter Futures booklet.

Your completed application will need to include an introduction letter, proof of First Nation status and a copy of your most recent marks.

You can also apply electronically using the online application.

- Aboriginal Scholarship Guide

Windspeaker newspaper and the Aboriginal Multi-Media Society Association (AMMSA) maintain an extensive list of scholarships and bursaries available to Aboriginal students. To apply you go to www.ammsa.com/community-access/scholarships and check the lists to determine which scholarships/bursaries that you may qualify for, and then contact the program administrators listed directly.
